CIBOLA ARTS COUNCIL HOLIDAY MOVIE

“THE DEAD”

(Exact Date TBA)

Dan Barry of the New York Times called THE DEAD, “just about the finest short story in the English language.” This James Joyce seasonal tale from his 1914 collection of short stories, THE DUBLINERS, is a story of love and loss. The main character experiences an epiphany perfectly summed up as the story ends. “His soul swooned slowly as he heard the snow falling faintly through the universe and faintly falling, like the descent of their last end, upon all the living and the dead..”

The Dead is a 1987 feature film directed by John Huston, starring his daughter Anjelica Huston. This was the last film that Huston directed, and it was released posthumously.

The film takes place in Dublin in 1904 at an Epiphany party held by two sisters and their niece. The story focuses attention on the academic Gabriel Conroy (Donal McCann) and his discovery of his wife Gretta’s (Anjelica Huston) memory of a deceased lover.

According to famed New Yorker film critic Pauline Kael, “Huston directed the movie, at eighty, from a wheelchair, jumping up to look through the camera, with oxygen tubes trailing from his nose to a portable generator; most of the time, he had to watch the actors on a video monitor outside the set and use a microphone to speak to the crew. Yet he went into

2017 Annual Report/Gallery Accomplishments

- ◆ 12 Exhibits
- ◆ 7 Student Exhibits
- ◆ 8 Workshops (Artists in Residence)
- ◆ 10 Art Camps
- ◆ 68 Total Activities

Our Mobile Museum Exhibit made its first appearance outside the Double Six Gallery in Santa Fe’s New Mexico State Capitol Rotunda on March 1, 2017 for Cibola County Day. It traveled next to Village of Milan City Hall, Grants City Hall, and is now on display at the Grants/Cibola County Chamber of Commerce and New Mexico Mining Museum.

Cibola Arts Council is very happy to report on the success of the first Student Art Fair
