OCTOBER 2024 NEWSLETTER

WE HAVE A MURAL!

Thanks to Main Street's new Director, Denise Hanson, two professional muralists, James Emroy and his brother Blake are decorating several places around Grants. Our mural expresses our three major cultures in history: Native American, Spanish, and Anglo. To honor our area's history and cultures, we chose a design that included images in the clouds and of course, Mt Taylor. There is a figure at an easel, painting 'Cebolleta' (Mt. Taylor's name in Spanish). Come, take a selfie in front of it and send it to us.

AUTUMN SPECIAL EVENTS

Our exhibition: "Shadows Fall" will be open until November 19, so come to see the work, and shop early at the Double Six for Christmas gifts.

On November 1st and 2nd, we will again honor ancestors on Dia de Los Muertos with a request for Ofrendas. There are fifteen spaces available, so reserve one soon.

DRAWING CLASSES

Drawing classes with artist Danielle Lara have changed to allow school students to attend. The next class is on Saturday October 12 from 3 to 5 pm. Her five-step series is an interesting and fun way to find the artist in your imagination.

ART CAMPS

Arts and crafts for the young and old alike! Come to enjoy working with your hands; leave with your creation. Saturday October 5 at 2 pm is Handmade Animal Ears, make some “ears” for your Halloween costume or to go with the Masquerade Masks you can make on October 19!

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SPECIAL TV SHOWS

This month we once again will show the Volcano film for those who read about it in Cibola Citizen’s review. Also showing this month is a film related to veterans: Driveways, in which Brian Denehy portrays a veteran with compassion and dignity.

VOLCANOES AGAIN: Sleeping Monsters, Sacred Fires is worth seeing for its Native American legends that help us recognize our relationship with the Mountain we belong to, as well as science’s predictions. Carly Monnin from El Malpais National Park will be present to give a short talk about volcanic activity in New Mexico. At the Double Six Gallery, 4 pm on October 11.

DRIVEWAYS: A film in which Brian Denehy plays a veteran of the Korean war who befriends a young Korean American boy who has become his neighbor. For we of a certain age, or who are close to anyone with Alzheimer's disease there are quietly relevant scenes that redeem the sadness of loss and change. At the Double Six Gallery, 4 pm on October 25.

OCTOBER FILM RECOMMENDATIONS

Opera! Mozart’s The Marriage of Figaro and The Magic Flute are both romantic comedies that follow the trials and adventures of overcoming obstacles.

In Figaro, two servants, Figaro and Susanna must connive to prevent their master, Count Almaviva, from seducing her. There are numerous complications involving others with desire or jealousy, but throughout, the music enlivens the buffoonery.

The Magic Flute is more of a coming-of-age story. Two men, one comic and one sincere, see beyond illusions and seductions to win true love.

FEATURED ARTIST

Doryan Candler has been with the Double Six for eight months. Her mosaics are simply beautiful, and she uses second-hand objects, helping to reduce our waste. Doryan and her husband own The Junkyard Brewery and are happy residents of Grants.
